Contestants and Accompanists will be admitted free of charge to the Sessions and Concerts in which they are performing.

CONDITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR ENTRY

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

*All entries are received subject to the following Conditions and Instructions.
Failure to comply may result in the disqualification of the Contestant.*

1. Contestants will appear as listed on the programme unless permission is granted by the committee. The order of appearance is selected at random by computer. The order of performance and duration of an item may be affected by contestants' withdrawals.
2. Times stated in the "Notices to Contestants" and the duration times for each Session are approximate only. The Committee will adhere to them as closely as possible, but reserves the right to vary the programme if necessary. The Committee apologises for any inconveniences brought about by unavoidable delays or extended Sessions.
3. The "Notices to Contestants" are to be presented to the receptionist upon arrival at the Festival venue.
4. Contestants are required to be at the venue 15 minutes prior to their Item commencing and prepared to perform up to 15 minutes earlier than the scheduled commencement time.
5. Contestants are not permitted to rehearse on the piano at the Festival venue.
6. Sound amplification, recorded sound or automated accompaniment is not allowed.
7. "Own Choice" selections must be stated on the entry form. No substitution or changes will be accepted. Entries without complete title and composer will NOT be accepted. The responsibility for correct entry form and choosing suitable material rests with the entrant. Suitability and degree of difficulty will be considered by the adjudicator.
8. For "Own Choice" selections, an extra copy MUST be supplied for use by the adjudicator. This is to be handed to the receptionist upon arrival at the venue marked clearly with the ITEM NUMBER and CONTESTANT NUMBER. Contestant's name must not appear on the supplied copy. Do not send copies of "Own Choice" selections with entry forms.

CONDITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR ENTRY

9. Photo copy of the piece to be examined may be supplied for the use by the adjudicator provided that:
 - a) an original is used by the contestants and accompanists for performance
 - b) the photocopy is taken by the Festival Committee and destroyed at the end of the Session.The Festival will not be liable for any copyright infringement relating to the submission of photocopies.
Entrants should be aware of the rules of copyright.
10. "Own Choice" selections must not exceed 5 minutes unless otherwise stated. If a performance extends over the specified time limit, the entrant will be disqualified from receiving a prize.
11. Contestants to enter only one Grade or Age Group per category unless otherwise indicated.
12. Contestants entering more than one item must present different pieces for each item.
13. The Committee reserves the right to amend or refuse any entry without any explanation and to cancel or amalgamate any section in which, in its opinion, there are insufficient entries.
14. No entry fee will be refunded.
15. It is recommended that contestants consider their overall presentation as well as technical ability, as adjudicators are required to take this into account when awarding marks.
16. Preliminary examinations will be conducted when necessitated by the number of entries.
17. Contestants or teachers are not permitted to talk to the adjudicator during the course of a Session.
18. Absolute silence from the audience and other contestants while a contestant is performing. Please refrain from moving around or in and out of the venue at these times.
19. Prompting is not permitted.

CONDITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR ENTRY

20. Certificates of merit may be awarded for First and/or second places in each item at the discretion of the adjudicator provided a sufficient standard is reached. Where there are 10 or more contestants in a section, a third place may be awarded. The adjudicator's decision shall be final.
Adjudicators' reports may be picked up at the end of each session.
21. Protests are to be lodged in writing with a fee of $10.00 prior to the conclusion of the Session. The fee will be refunded if the protest is upheld. The Protests Committee will consist of the Festival Committee and the adjudicator.
22. The Committee has the right to call upon prize winners to perform at any final demonstration it may arrange. Prize winners who fail to perform at the Winners Concerts will forfeit their trophies and/or awards.
Unless otherwise directed by the Committee, the selections to be performed at the Winners Concerts are to be the same as those performed during the Festival.
A maximum of any two solo winning performances by the same contestant shall be allowed at each Winners Concert. This will be determined by the Committee who will take into consideration the duration of the Concerts.
23. Perpetual trophies may be held by the winners and must be returned in good order to the Secretary one month prior to the next Festival.
24. The Committee's decision in any dispute arising from, or not provided for in these Conditions and Instructions, shall be final.
25. The Festival does not accept any responsibility for any accident that may occur or any property lost or stolen at the Festival venues.
26. Contestants who have won the same Open Item, as shown in this Schedule, on two previous occasions shall be ineligible to re-enter that Item.

FESTIVAL STAFF VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers are regularly recruited to help in the running of the Festival Sessions and Concerts.
